6. Procedure

6.1 Promoting an Event

6.1.1 Any events organized by UM entities or others on University Grounds are to be approved by the Conference and Events Unit, which can be contacted via email (conference@um.edu.mt)

6.1.2 In order to promote these events on Newspoint, an email is to be sent to newspoint@um.edu.mt with the following event details:

- Official Event title
- Date
- Time
- Venue
- Any contact info (email, phone number etc.)
- The URL of the event being promoted on any social media.

The event description should not exceed 300 words (refer to Appendix 1 for tips on submitting the event description). This text should ideally be accompanied with high quality photos. It is recommended that a minimum of two photos (landscape and portrait orientation) are submitted with the event description to portray the event to be promoted. Post events press releases may be included in the news items.

6.1.3 Any changes to the events details including updates and / or cancellations, should be immediately communicated via email (newspoint@um.edu.mt).

6.1.4 The UM calendar of events (<https://www.um.edu.mt/newspoint/events/calendar>) is strictly for events associated with the UM. Any other events will be uploaded but excluded from the UM calendar. Other events, such as from cultural institutes/entities and registered voluntary organisations (<https://maltacvs.org/vo-directory/>), not linked with UM, but still of interest to UM students and general public will be listed under the category 'Malta' (<https://www.um.edu.mt/newspoint/events/malta>). In exceptional circumstances, the Newspoint team can choose to list an event which does not necessarily fall under any of the above criteria.

6.2 Submitting News Items

6.2.1 The headlines presented should be reflective of the text as well as concise. The editorial team has the right to change the headline as it deems fit.

- 6.2.2 Proposed news items should be brief between 250 to 500 words (Refer to Appendix 2 for guidelines on submitting a news item). The Newspoint team reserves the right to modify news items and headlines whilst retaining the essence of the news item.
- 6.2.3 A minimum of two high-resolution photos (landscape and portrait orientation) are to be submitted to describe the theme of the news item. Where applicable, individuals featuring in any images should sign the relevant consent form:
https://www.um.edu.mt/_data/assets/pdf_file/0006/383838/photovideoconsentform-information.pdf.
- 6.2.4 In addition to this, if any video material pertaining to the news item is available, this is to be included with the submission request. If videos are first uploaded to the official UM YouTube channel (<https://www.youtube.com/user/universityofmalta>), the Newspoint team will embed this video inside the article.
- 6.2.5 When news releases and statements are to be disseminated to the media they are not to be sent to the media before they are included on Newspoint, unless disseminating the release/statement first to the media is deemed necessary in exceptional circumstances. When the media is notified (usually by email with a document attached) of a new release/statement reference to the URL on Newspoint is included too.
- 6.2.6 Authors of research articles may also request the Newspoint team to share the article via Eurekalert! to maximise their chances of this research being picked up by international media.
- 6.2.7 The Newspoint Office reserves the right to review all the news items received and to reword any material as necessary.
- 6.2.8 The Newspoint team selects twenty news items to be published on the Newspoint Update which is then circulated via e-mail on Friday afternoon.

8. List of appendices/worksheets

- 8.1 Appendix 1: Event Description
- 8.2 Appendix 2: Submitting News Items

Appendix 1: Event Description

The event description submitted should not exceed 300 words, and it should answer questions such as:

- Who is this event aimed at?
- What is the general theme of this event?
- Is there an event programme?
- Who are the speakers?
- Is there a call for papers associated with this event?
- Is this the first edition of this event?
- Is this event available to the public, or by invitation only?

Appendix 2: Submitting News Items

The text submitted should not exceed 500 words and should at the very least, answer the following questions:

- Who - Who is involved? If UM staff, a link to their profile is best. If not, please specify the Faculty, Institute, Centre, School or Department concerned.
- What - What happened or is about to happen? What's newsworthy about it?
- When - When did this take place? / When will it happen? According to brand guidelines, dates should be in the following format: day - month - year, e.g. 20 November 2020.
- Where - Specify the place where the news took place or will take place, to give more context to the item.
- Why - Why is this news topical? Try to link it to some more wide-reaching studies, or to past related events.

When preparing your text, remember to:

- stick to a consistent tense (past, present, future and the related sub-categories)
- stick to a consistent voice (active voice preferred, if possible)
- stick to a consistent point of view (use first, second or third-person perspective).
- avoid the use of generic titles - though they should be short and to the point, they should also be descriptive of the item concerned. Abbreviations should not be part of any title.

When submitting an article the use of British English is preferred. Words/terms in other languages should be italicised.

The correct date format to be used is as follows: Weekday – Day – Month – Year.

Links / URLs, should make part of the text via the use of hyperlinks, and not as standalone text. It is worth mentioning that use of terms such as 'click here', 'found here', 'tap here', are heavily discouraged (<https://www.w3.org/QA/Tips/noClickHere>). Newspoint Office reserves the right to reword text received in order to avoid such practices.
